TALK IT OVER TOGETHER

Here's how to process this week's message together with your friends and family!

HERE ARE SOME QUESTIONS TO HELP YOU PROCESS THE MESSAGE:

Start talking. Find a conversation starter.

- What's your favorite aspect of living in a small town?
- What's your least favorite aspect of living in a small town?
- How do the advantages and disadvantages work together?

Start thinking. Ask questions to get your group thinking.

- How are the things that bother you the most about living in a small town advantages?
- Consider your perspective of where you're from. How can changing that perspective enable you to get more out of your life today?

Start sharing. Choose questions that create openness.

- Sometimes good things come from unexpected places. Share a story of how something good happened to you but came from an unexpected source.

TAKING THE NEXT STEPS

What part of your perspective can you change about where you're from?

TAKE A MOMENT TO REFLECT & PRAY:
God, too often we've disqualified ourselves from the great things you've designed us to do because we look at our circumstances and doubt what you can do. Help us to see the benefits that come with our situation. Help us to embrace the liabilities that come with the great advantages you've leveraged on our behalf. And… help us to step into the great life you've called us to live!

SCRIPTURES TO FOCUS ON THIS WEEK

"Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." "Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?" Nathanael asked. "Come and see," said Philip." John 1:45-46 NIV
