TALK IT OVER TOGETHER

Here's how to process this week's message together with your friends and family!

HERE ARE SOME QUESTIONS TO HELP YOU PROCESS THE MESSAGE:

1. How have you dealt with your weaknesses? Has the way you've dealt with your weaknesses strengthened your hope?
2. What can you learn about your life by examining the people you're doing life with? How do you point others to hope? Who is pointing you to hope?
3. How do you deal with obstacles on your journey?
4. At what point do you let go and release others to God? At what point do you stop looking to others and start looking to God to be your answer?
5. How can hope reshape your perspective of the past, present and future?

TAKING THE NEXT STEP

What's keeping you from hope?

TAKE A MOMENT TO REFLECT & PRAY:
Confess that you believe that Jesus has overcome sin and death. Ask God to forgive you for not allowing His victory to be enough for you. Tell God what you're hoping for. Invite Him into your future, your hopes, and your dreams.

SCRIPTURES TO FOCUS ON THIS WEEK

"If you only look at us, you might well miss the brightness. We carry this precious Message around in the unadorned clay pots of our ordinary lives. That's to prevent anyone from confusing God's incomparable power with us. As it is, there's not much chance of that. You know for yourselves that we're not much to look at. We've been surrounded and battered by troubles, but we're not demoralized; we're not sure what to do, but we know that God knows what to do; we've been spiritually terrorized, but God hasn't left our side; we've been thrown down, but we haven't broken. What they did to Jesus, they do to us—trial and torture, mockery and murder; what Jesus did among them, he does in us — HE LIVES!" 2 Corinthians 4:7-12 (MSG)

"But for right now, until that completeness, we have three things to do to lead us toward that consummation: Trust steadily in God, hope unswervingly, love extravagantly. And the best of the three is love." 1 Corinthians 13:13 (MSG)
